

Membership in CIA

- All churches that belong to CIA are asked to make an initiation fee to help cover costs of outreach projects. The amount of this fee will be determined by that church's mission committee
- Each participating church will elect 1-3 representatives from its membership to participate and vote at CIA board meetings. Guests are also welcomed to attend board meetings.
- Along with these representatives the CIA board will consist of a President, Treasurer, and Secretary, elected by the board to one-year renewable terms.
- Any church interested in joining should contact CIA President, Russell Rich at (716) 648-5785. We welcome the opportunity to come and speak to your church or council. Any individual may also participate in outreach projects.

Our Mission Statement

We exist to facilitate mission amongst local ecumenically minded churches. We aim to serve our neighbors both locally and beyond, wherever we see need, both inside and outside of the Christian community. We believe that united ministry in the name of Christ is one of the greatest witnesses we can offer to the transformative power of our Christian faith

- Each Christian church serves an important role in its representation of and ministry to a particular body of believers.
- We recognize and respect that each participating church differs in worship, creed, and membership.
- We all maintain the one foundational belief that Jesus Christ is our risen Lord and Savior.
- It is to the glory of God and through the grace of the Holy Spirit that we can work side by side in service to Jesus Christ.

A Brief History of CIA

Churches in Action was founded in September 1996. Three local churches: St. Matthew's UCC, Hamburg Presbyterian, and St. James' UCC, came together to share a vision of ecumenical service, both here, in our community, and beyond.
